Editorial ~ The Manor Inn ~ Next 10 Years

There are many rumours about the future of The Manor Inn, so I spoke to Chris Hodson & Jonathan Smith, who said (with apologies to Mark Twain) "The reports of our death have been greatly exaggerated".

Many of you will be aware of the discussions between the landlords, Chris and Jonathan, and Punch Taverns plc, who own the freehold, because the current lease is due for renewal on 21st September 2016.

Punch told Chris & Jonathan last year, their lease would not be renewed. Their grounds were they might want to develop the pub for their own use, and that it was (in their view) in disrepair, needing some £57K expenditure. Punch's action is due to a recent law change meant to redress the balance between big pub companies and their tenants, and may break the beer tie that currently obliges The Manor to buy beer from Punch, often at literally twice the market price, so Punch are looking for escape loopholes.

Chris & Jonathan, aware of their legal rights, fought back, and enlisted the support of local residents, the Press, their solicitors Wollen Michelmores and the Pubs Advisory Service. A petition was launched that currently has more than 1,000 signatories. Dr Sarah Wollaston M.P. intervened directly with Punch Taverns and with BIS Minister Anna Soubry on The Manor's behalf.

"We're absolutely determined to stay at The Manor Inn and secure another 10 years", said Chris. "We're not out of the woods with Punch, and they are mean negotiators, but it would be madness to throw in the towel now, after all the hard work that our staff and we have put in over the last few years, not to mention the financial investment. We've been very open with our customers and staff about our difficulties. We owe that to them. The Manor is an important feature of the village, and also a significant employer."

"The support of local residents, whether or not pub-goers, is fantastic", says Jonathan. "As a direct result, Punch dropped their plans to take back the pub for another use, and now say they will negotiate on the dilapidations."

Meanwhile it is business as usual at The Manor, with plans for Christmas and beyond. Chris said, "We're nearly full for Christmas Day, and look forward to welcoming all our customers, as usual, for many years to come."

The summer is here so the "Friends" are taking time out from trips during the August school holiday period. See below for trips coming your way in September and October.

At present we have no further news on what will happen to Churston Library next year or indeed to Torbay Library Services as a whole. The response from members to assist the committee has been very disappointing. Without your committee there will not be a "Friends" group to help the library. If you can help please leave a note in the "Friends" post box in the library.

We will update the website with any new information.

Open Gardens Day

Galampton was bathed in sunshine for the 2016 Open Gardens Day on 5 June. Visitor numbers were well up on last year, with nearly 300 people enjoying some of Galampton's finest gardens, live music from a 20-strong Galampton Traditional & Swing Jazz Group, delicious teas and cakes from Beryl Tate and her team, and a barbecue at the pub. We extend our heartfelt thanks to all the gardeners and volunteers who made the day such a success.

Greenway Community News

The wonderful Writing Places project, with 3 month writer residency and a series of literary events and workshops drew to a close at the end of July. The project inspired many of our visitors and event participants to write a little of their own work, and it has been a pleasure to share in all this creativity. A legacy remains in the writing notebooks our visitors will continue to be offered at Greenway and in snippets of poetry and creative writing which can be found in the gardens throughout the summer and beyond. Do come down and enjoy it in the sunshine.

Galmpton Gooseberry Pie Fair

Chairman: Alex Lowry Tel: 01803 661101 Mob: 07772 813513

The 22nd annual fair was held on Sunday 3rd July in glorious sunshine. It was one of the best attended in recent years, and is expected to have raised substantial sums for local charities.

Visitors enjoyed a range of delicious pies in addition to the famous giant gooseberry pie, baked by Hallett's of Paignton, which was transported to Churston Station by steam train and marched in procession into the village led by piper Stan John. Musical entertainment was provided by Harbour, Laurence Traverso, Galmpton Traditional & Swing Jazz Group, Merriejig, Brixham College Big Band, and Lesley Presley.

A big thank-you goes to all local residents who gave their time to help and to The Manor Inn for hosting the event. Special thanks go to this year's extremely generous sponsors R J Knapman & Son building contractors, Roger Richards solicitors, and T & I Stockman funeral directors.

Keep an eye open for the AGM in the Autumn.

Many colour photos, which were taken by Peter Tattersall, are online at www.tatewise.co.uk/gazette.htm with all years from 2010 to 2016.

Provision for Eternity

After the Lord Jesus Christ had finished His famous Sermon on the Mount we read “And so it was, when Jesus had ended these sayings, that the people were astonished at His teaching, for He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.” Matt 7 vv28-29 NKJV. Jesus spoke as one who really knew what he was talking about. He understood clearly and spoke plainly. On one occasion He challenged His hearers “For what shall it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul” Mark 8 v36 NKJV. He was warning against the exclusive pursuit of worldly interest and the neglect of securing our safety in the life to come. That we are made for bigger things than the things of this life is clear from God’s revelation in the Bible and our own inner feelings and desires. God has created us for a relationship with Himself and He set eternity in our hearts. We have a saying ‘don’t put all your eggs into one basket’.

Are you living only for this life? What of eternity? Do you care for your soul? We are all sinners who have rebelled against God by breaking His commandments. This means we are heading for judgement and final rejection by God unless we are reconciled to Him here in this life. The good news of the Christian faith is that this is possible through Christ. “For God so loved the world that He gave his only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.” John 3v16 NKJV. In another passage Peter the Apostle wrote, “For Christ also suffered once for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God.” 1Peter 3v18 NKJV. This means that if we are sorry for our sins and ask for God’s forgiveness then for Christ’s sake God can justly forgive us. We must receive Christ as our Saviour and Lord or be lost forever.

Have you made any provision for eternity? Or are all your eggs in one basket?

Unsettling Times

Writing just after the EU Referendum, it seems we live in a very unsettled time locally, nationally and globally. We see events on the media that are not only disturbing, but sometimes frightening. Our politicians appear out of touch and sometimes untrustworthy, and our future uncertain. What do we do? Well, as the saying goes, for most of us it is 'Keep Calm and Carry On'; what else can we do?

There is one thing we can do. At the moment there is a lot of suspicion around the question of people who 'are not like us', whatever that means; a lot of talk about 'immigrants' and 'people coming into our country and taking our jobs'. There is a lot of poor thinking around this. If every immigrant currently working in this country were to leave, at a stroke our hospitals, care homes, building sites, shops and farms would have to close because there would not be enough staff or expertise on hand to operate them. There would be complete chaos and breakdown of our way of life.

If we were to be kinder to each other and value each other, we would get on far better and see that each has a contribution to make to society. After all, how many of us reading this, were born and bred in Brixham, or Devon even? Many of us 'migrated' here from our town of origin because we liked what Brixham has to offer. No-one asked the locals if they wanted us here! Jesus was a radical in saying 'love your neighbour as yourself' and 'love your enemies', and yet the idea is not so far-fetched; we just need to do it.

For the times of our regular church services please see Page 23.

Brixham Peninsula Neighbourhood Plan (BPNP)

A visit to Galmpton by Planning Examiner Liz Beth gave GRA Committee members, who took her on a village tour, valuable advice on how best to structure and present our Neighbourhood Plan for the village's preservation and enhancement. Final adjustments to the Plan are now under way. Liz shared our concern to promote the distinctive character of the village and to ensure that its AONB and unique conservation status is protected.

Gooseberry Pie Fair Publicity Stand

As a Prelude to the Drop-in Day planned for 16th July, the GRA had a publicity stand at the Pie Fair which publicised the village issues and features that the association attempts to address. We enjoyed hearing the views and concerns of the many local people who showed an interest in the village display and maps.

Village Consultation

We shall be supplying an analysis of responses to the questionnaire distributed to all houses and queries raised at the Drop-in Day. There is a box in Galmpton Post Office to leave as yet uncompleted questionnaires unless you prefer to Email the GRA with specific concerns.

Galmpton/Warborough Common and Flood Emergency

The Pie Fair and Village Hall Drop-in displays emphasised the ecological and cultural value of the common, and these aspects will be further publicised in view of Windy Corner road-widening proposals. The Drop-in Day also informed people about the co-operation between community and emergency services that would be required in the event of flooding – to which parts of the village remain vulnerable – and we welcome volunteers to contribute to this process.

GRA Subscriptions

Many thanks for your annual subscriptions which help support our work. Those for this year will be collected from October onwards.

Future of GRA

Please contact any member of the GRA should you have the time, interest and/or expertise to contribute to any community project, aspects of village amenities and infrastructure, or issues relating to its natural environmental context. Anyone who wishes to attend a meeting is always welcome.

Churston with Galmpton Ward

The E.U. referendum has taken place. On Sat. 25th June I attended a coffee morning at St Mary's Church Totnes with Anne Widdicombe, who gave an enlightening talk on her life. She answered various questions and pointed out that in this time of uncertainty, for most of us, life goes on as normal. Her common sense replies did a lot to reassure the rest of us. As Anne pointed out, the referendum result would create some teething problems, but she was of the firm belief that there would be long term benefits.

I would like to raise awareness of the Street Pastors voluntary work throughout Torbay. Their work has helped reduce crime and increased safety across the bay. Street Pastors' presence has reduced bullying and fighting incidents, especially at the end of the day. At a meeting in the Town Hall, we were informed that the work of the Street Pastors in conjunction with help and support from both Torbay Council and Devon & Cornwall Police is being promoted as a huge success story for other areas of Devon to copy. Torbay is now one of the lowest crime areas in Devon because of the forward thinking of Torbay Council and this multifaceted partnership.

Hall Bookings & Secretary: June Symes: 842121

During the summer holiday period, the hall will be closed for the majority of the time in order that more major renovation can be carried out.

This will include a substantial upgrading of the electrical system, including safety and lighting, new flooring of the storeroom area, replacement of three doors, redecoration of the main hall area, and replacement of stage and window curtains. We look forward to a pristine Institute for the use of the community.

Update on the Covenant to Protect Churston Golf Course

In what is now becoming a regular feature in THE GAZETTE, updating readers on the covenant, we are currently not aware of any progress having been made by the Council on this issue. Derek Mills, one of our respected Ward Councillors, and also the Deputy Mayor has been leading on this matter for our area and may have a more up to date position. His contact details are opposite and on Page 24.

Neighbourhood Development Plan

In the last few weeks the Torbay New Local Plan has been finally published and you can find it at www.torbay.gov.uk/newlocalplan online.

Our Brixham Peninsula Neighbourhood Plan will provide the intricate detail to deliver the broad strategic objectives of the Local Plan. In practise this means that our plan, produced by a group of volunteers with help from a series of specialist outside consultants, will be much more detailed than the Torbay plan produced by the professional planning officers.

It is this reason alone which means the plan has now been some time in the production. However, as the plan will be the key document that will manage how our area develops over the next 20 years it is very important, and it is important we get it right. To this end, early consultation feedback on written sections of the plan is very encouraging.

Further information about the plan and the details public meetings in relation to its development can be found at www.brixhamtowncouncil.gov.uk online. From there you can click on the Neighbourhood Plan and Agendas and Minutes tabs on the right hand side of the page.

In addition, we have a long e-mail list, which we use to advise of regular public meetings regarding the plan. If you would like to be added to this list then please e-mail us:

Holiday Checklist

“Tickets? Holiday confirmation? Passport? Currency? I’m sure there’s something else. I know – Our Wills! Are they up to date?”

“Everyone knows we’re together. It’ll all come to you, anyway”. “Oh, well that’s okay then. We’ll leave it for now. Do it when we’re older, perhaps”.

For the majority of people, ‘dying’ may not be top of the list of things to consider too much while we are so busy ‘living’. Furthermore, perhaps we don’t like to have to think about it. Why should you make a Will?

Even if you do not consider yourself to be the wealthiest person in town, if you die without leaving a valid Will, certain rules will dictate how your ‘Estate’ (of possessions, money or property), should be allocated. Of course, those rules may distribute your goods and cash differently to the plan you had in mind!

If you are not married to your partner, or if you have not registered a civil partnership, you and your partner cannot inherit from each other unless a valid Will exists. Consequently, the death of one partner may create serious financial difficulties for the remaining partner.

If you have children, you will need to make a Will so that arrangements for the children can be made if either or both parents die.

It may be possible to reduce the amount of tax payable on inheritance if advice is sought in advance and a Will is made.

If your circumstances have changed, it is important that a Will is made to ensure your money and possessions are distributed as you wish. This is even more important if you have separated and your former partner lives with someone else now. In such circumstances, you may want to change your Will. If you re-marry, or enter in to a registered civil partnership, any previous Will becomes invalid, so it is vital to up-date it to ensure your wishes are carried out rather than the tax man’s wishes!
